It is with great honor that the New York Head Mechanics Association brings this event to you for the 30th year! As always, what you are about to see in this event is the newest and greatest technology advancements in the school bus field. We have worked tirelessly in making sure this seminar will benefit all attendees to get a day full of education and vendor contacts that will benefit you when you return to your place of work. We have also put together 3 classes that will benefit you in many ways.

Please fill out and send in the registration form with the requested information and return it to the address on the registration form.

There is a $25.00 non-refundable registration fee for each attendee of the seminar.

There will be several training classes, a continental breakfast and lunch buffet at the closing ceremony which is included in your registration fee.

Registration starts at 7:00 AM and the vendor area will also be open. The first class will start at 8:00 AM with the continental breakfast being available after that class. The closing ceremony and lunch buffet will be at the end of the last class around 1:30 PM.
