

Company Update No. 17-1214

First Responder Training

CHILD SAFETY IS NUMBER 1

New York Bus Sales recently brought their School Bus “First Responder” Training to the Horseheads Central School. Horseheads Central School and Head Mechanic Jason Johnson were kind enough to host over 40 first responders from the surrounding Fire Districts.

Matt Helmbold from Gates Chili Central School was also instrumental in the training by lending their “Safety Bus” pictured above. This bus gives a real life feel for what it is like to be in a school bus which has overturned and the methods for safely removing any passengers.
